Mokena School News

Grades Three and Four

To make our study of Switzerland more real we are arranging a bulletin board depicting the children's ideas of the life of the people of Switzerland, how the Alps mountains look, the rivers which rise in the Alps and any other points which are of interest to the children.

Balance of Nature has afforded an interesting topic for our Science study. Beginning with a "balanced aquarium" we broadened the study to include the life about us as well as the life in our national forests. A movie depicting plant and animal life in our forests, showing how it is necessary that a "balance of nature" be maintained, added much to our understanding of the unit.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit each child has cut and decorated a green paper Christmas tree which we think make an attractive border above our new green chalk board. We are also arranging, on the bulletin board in the back of the room, a December arrangement consisting of suitable articles and pictures providing for self-expression by the children.

We were happy to welcome a goodly number of our mothers as visitors during American Education week.

Grades Four and Five

Lewis and Beverly Johnson both entered our fifth grade from the Anoka, Minnesota school system, and Bonnie Jean Rydell entered from the Chicago system. Bonnie makes the 18th girl in the fifth grade.

Anthony Dina, our Bulletin board chairman, is kept busy choosing pictures for our daily class work.

Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Murphy, our homeroom mothers, are busily engaged in making our forthcoming Christmas play a success, with the able assistance of the 5th grade girls.

Both grades are stressing penmanship for all subjects. We are striving for legibility and neatness of all our class work.

Several of our 5th grade boys are making good progress in the basketball "field."

Because we completed the course successfully, we will receive a tree which we will plant in our school yard shortly before next Arbor Day.—Ted Dunham, reporter.

Sixth Grade

Roger Swart and Donald Lehmann have completed their Junior Forestry course at the Morton Arboretum. They have received their achievement cards. Our room received a letter from Mrs. Watts, the leader, telling us that our tree books were outstanding among all the books turned in from the various towns.

Henry and Stanley Barnett are new pupils in our room. Welcome to the sixth grade and Mokena, boys.

CHRISTMAS EDITION NEXT WEEK

Next week we will issue our annual Christmas edition. If there is anyone who would like to have a greeting ad in that issue and has not been contacted by this paper, we ask those to call us.

Beside Christmas greetings we will publish the Christmas programs to be held in churches and schools in this territory, as well as regular news.

Everything is ready in Mokena for a huge Community Christmas celebration around a Yule tree. The setting will be in the village park north of the churches. There, a large 30 foot tree will be erected by the Mokena Civic association, which will be decorated and brilliantly lighted.

The Association is asking any one who would help in the decorating, to go to the park right after lunch Saturday, December 15 and assist in this task.

Saturday evening, December 22 at 7 o'clock the community party, sponsored by the Association, will take place. Santa Claus will be present with gifts for all children, and a program with singing of carols will be held.

Mr. Oliver Kieslar will lead in the singing and the choir of St. John's Evangelical and the Methodist churches will assist. Everyone, young and old, is urged to attend this outdoor Christmas celebration.

BURNS RUBBISH IN HIGH WIND; RESULTS IN FIRE

What might have been a big fire in Mokena sweeping through a large area with homes last Thursday afternoon, was averted by the quick thinking of Mrs. Clarence Immekus.

According to the Mokena fire department who answered Mrs. Immekus' call, a woman neighbor about 500 feet east of her, had burned some rubbish in her yard. She stated she went in her house as she thought the fire was out. Mrs. Immekus saw the vacant area between her home on 192nd street in Sunny Acres and her neighbors, all ablaze and the fire coming rapidly toward her house.

Carpenters who were working on some new homes in that area came to help Mrs. Immekus and when the fire department arrived they had a hard fight for some time to get the fire under control and save the garage and house of the Immekus'.

Had the fire department not been called as soon as they were nothing could have stopped the fire in the face of the high wind, from sweeping through that area, taking several homes in its stride.

Cub Workers Attend Coal City Pow-wow

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams, Fred Werner, Fred Lehmann and Mrs. James Murphy attended the 1951 Cub Pow-wow which was held in the high school in Coal City December 9.

It was a day very well spent with instructions, games, crafts, ceremonial programs, exhibits, a midway and supper. It gave an opportunity for meeting neighboring community leaders, Den Mothers, Den Fathers, and all the council men of Rainbow Council.

The Midway was enjoyed by all—with games of skill, and every one receiving a gift whether they won or not.

After the instruction sessions the Friendship club of the Coal City Methodist church served supper and Phillip Watts of Plainfield was master of ceremonies.

The group was led in singing by J. S. Sproull and the Council president, Charles McKeown, talked on Cubbing. 115 attended the gathering.

No Pack meeting will be held Dec. 27 as the meeting is postponed until after the holidays. If weather permits the boys will be taken to Palos for sled riding as they were last year.

Great Books Group Study Aristotle's Idea of Happiness

Leland Rayson was the co-leader with W. W. Kester at the discussion of the Tinley Park Great Books group meeting held in the public school last Saturday night with 23 present.

An interesting discussion was enjoyed on "Aristotle's Ethics". Mrs. James Smay was a visitor. Coffee and cookies were served at the close.

In his book Aristotle examines human nature to find the best possible life and considers the popular view that happiness comes from wealth, honor and pleasures, and finds that these alone will not bring happiness. He goes on to inquire what will.

The next meeting of the group will be Saturday evening, December 15 when Michael Borge will be the co-leader with Mr. Kester. The discussion will center on Aristotle's thought on politics.

Although Miami Beach covers an area of only 17.6 square miles this resort center has 62.25 miles of waterfront.

King is Candidate For Re-election

John M. King, Republican state representative of Wheaton, today announced his candidacy for re-election to the office of representative in the General Assembly.

King, who was the youngest republican ever elected to the General Assembly, also holds the unique position of being one of the few "First Termers" ever to be selected for the powerful appropriation, revenue and executive committees. Also serving on the conservation, and industry-labor relations committee; King devoted much of his energies to the appropriations committee.

Together with several other representatives, a concerted effort was made to cut some $5 million of unnecessary and ill-considered expenditures out of the present budget. The "King Resolution" (H. R. 67), which was passed at his instigation, forced the various code department and officers to give complete breakdowns of contemplated detailed explanations of need for added appropriation. "Thus, for the first time in 12 years," King said, "did the appropriations committee have adequate information for determining the need or lack of it for specific requests."

With his slogan "A record for Economy," created by his opposition to over $7 million worth of appropriation; King intends to carry on an aggressive campaign "with the goal of informing each citizen of the 41st senatorial district how he may participate in forcing the state to save tax monies."

A leader in young republican activities, King served as National chairman of the Young Republican College clubs while studying political science and business administration at Elmhurst college and Northwestern university. Later he organized the DuPage Young Republicans and has served for five years as a member of the Board of Governors of the state organization representing the 14 congressional district.

Active in many civic organizations in the state, he is currently a National Director of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is a Mason and member of the Methodist church. King is vice-president of the Protect-O-Seals Corporation of Glen Ellyn, and Lansing, Mich. Manufacturers and distributors of Protect-O-Seal, a waterproof paint.

King's election to the State Legislature two years ago signified the opportunity for youth to take an active part in government. The record shows what can be done when having the will to work and a desire for accomplishment.

DECORATE MOKENA BUSINESS SECTION

The Business Men's Association of Mokena have sponsored the decorating of each street light pole in the business section on Front street in Mokena.

Each pole has a red wreath with an evergreen spray and it greatly adds to the festiveness of the Christmas season.

LUHRING FAMILY SELLS INT. IN FRANK. BANK

It was announced today that negotiations have been completed involving the sale of the majority stock interest of the Frankfort State Bank of Frankfort, Illinois, to a group of Frankfort businessmen consisting of A. C. Bauch, A. H. Krusemark, Ben Mager, and William Wischover. Those selling their stock, which consisted of 132 shares of a total issue of 250 shares, were Lloyd Luhring, individually and as administrator of the estate of John A. Luhring, deceased, Henry Luhring, Frank Luhring, and H. J. Lambrecht all of Frankfort.

The contract for this sale was signed and completed Saturday and deposited in escrow with Charles Reardon of the First National Bank of Joliet as escrow agent. The purchase money and stock will be delivered to Reardon on or before January 4, 1952. At that time H. J. Lambrecht and Frank Luhring will resign as directors of the bank. An order of the probate court was signed by Judge Adams Monday approving the sale of the stock owned by the estate of John A. Luhring.

According to A. H. Krusemark, the buyers purchased the stock as a committee representing local investors. All of the stock will be sold to local business men, farmers, and investors, with no one stockholder owning more than 10 shares of stock. In the event of a two for one split of the stock, an individual stockholder will be allowed to own 20 shares.

Ben Mager, president of the bank, announced at the special stockholders' meeting Monday that the recent report received from the state bank examiners showed the bank to be in excellent financial condition. At this special meeting, Henry Luhring was elected to fill the unexpired term of John A. Luhring for the balance of the year 1951.

The bank, of course, will continue in operation as usual serving the community of Frankfort and its surrounding territory. The purchasers announced that plans will be completed in the near future to improve the service and facilities of the bank. All efforts will be made to give better and more efficient service to the depositors. It is planned that at the annual meeting in January the stock will be split two for one by means of a stock dividend. It will be also recommended that the board of directors be increased in number from five to nine members to give adequate representation to the community, business men, farmers, and those interested in the bank.

The pending suit in the circuit court of Will county by minority stockholders against the estate of John A. Luhring is to be dismissed upon completion of this contract. There was a meeting of stockholders, depositors, and business men Tuesday evening, December 11, at the A. C. Bauch garage to discuss the sale of the stock. Those interested in the bank were invited to attend this meeting.

Change in Time For Rock Island Trains Starting Dec. 17

The Rock Island Lines' announced today that the readjusted schedules for its suburban service will become effective December 17.

The readjustment cuts off five of the present runs and combines nine others. The Illinois Commerce Commission recently approved the program on the basis of decreased revenues and the road's assertion that the suburban service was losing approximately $1,000,000 annually in the operation.

None of the affected schedules are during rush periods, nor are Saturday and Sunday schedules changed.

Originally, it had been expected that the readjustment would save the company approximately $158,000 per year. However, with higher operating and other costs since the time of the hearings, the anticipated savings have been substantially cut and may not exceed $100,000 per year.

Trains effecting Tinley Park, Mokena and New Lenox are as follows, using Mokena as an example. Residents in Tinley Park and New Lenox will adjust the time from that given for Mokena.

Trains OUT starting next Monday will be those now leaving Chicago at 6:22 a.m. arriving at Mokena at 7:22 a.m., leaving Chicago at 1:13 p.m. arrive Mokena 2:13 p.m., leave Joliet at 5:05 a.m. arrive Mokena 5:25 a.m. and leave Joliet at 11:00 a.m. arrive Mokena 11:16 a.m.

New train schedule will be: leaving Chicago 6:30 a.m., arrive Mokena 7:30, leave Chicago 2:15 p.m. arrive Mokena 2:45 p.m.

East bound, leave Joliet 5:25 a.m. arrive Mokena 5:42, and Chicago 6:32 a.m., leave Joliet 12:01 p.m., arrive Mokena 12:16, and Chicago 1:20 p.m. All other trains remain unchanged which effect these towns.

ASKS BOARD TO REZONE HARLEM 95TH ST. AREA

A rezoning meeting was held in the Palos Park village hall to hear arguments for and against changing the classification of the area on the west side of Harlem, south of 95th street. If the area is put into No. 12 (heavy industry) the Hot point corporation plans to build a $15,000,000 refrigerator plant. The company has an option on 110 acres of land there. According to an officer of the company, a plant of this size will need more than 3,000 employees, 25 per cent of whom would be women.

Several neighboring towns are very much in favor of having the plant established in their territory because of the taxes. Many are seeking to incorporate the area into their villages but the plant management so far prefers Oak Lawn because that village might have the facilities for furnishing water and drainage. Among the other villages interested in the project are Columbus Manor and Hickory Hills.

Diesels on All R. I. Suburban Trains

The Rock Island Lines today accepted delivery of the last of 15 locomotives which will make possible the complete dieselization of the suburban system by December 17, when new schedules will become effective.

The locomotive was received by President J. D. Farrington of the Rock Island Lines at a ceremony held in LaSalle Street station. All the new engines were manufactured by American Locomotive company and General Electric company in Schenectady, New York and were delivered in November.

The changeover from steam to diesel service will affect some 25,000 to 30,000 Rock Island commuters who make the daily round trip between Chicago, Blue Island and Joliet.

The 15 new diesels, each capable of 80 m.p.h. speed, cost more than $2,600,000. The new equipment, plus two others already in service, will replace 28 steam-type locomotives which originally powered the suburban service.

The locomotives are equipped with several features designed to increase their serviceability as well as add to passenger comfort and safety, such as quicker and smoother stops and starts. Also, the locomotives can be coupled together and controlled by a single crew so that two or more units can be operated as a single locomotive of greater horsepower, if need be. Controls are arranged so that the engine can operate in either direction, avoiding time-consuming locomotive turn-arounds at the end of a line.

She was born in Peotone township, the daughter of the late Engelhardt and Elizabeth Meier Borms. While at Frankfort she was a dressmaker and operated a millinery shop. She was a talented artist and was interested in the subject up to the time of her death. She enjoyed travel and spent many seasons in Florida and California.

HIGH WINDS OF TORNADO NATURE DOES HEAVY DAMAGE AT AIRPORT

The windstorm that reached gale velocity Thursday night in this area, demolished a hangar at the Prosperi airport at Tinley Park and completely wrecked one plane, a Seabee, belonging to Edward Prosperi. The hangar was a building 200 feet long and 30 feet deep, with doors 12 feet in height.

A plane belonging to Edward English of Chicago, also a Seabee, was damaged extensively but is not beyond repair. This plane was damaged by big roof timbers when they fell on the tail. The large doors of the hangar were found north of the airport.

Considerable damage was done by this storm at Joliet, where plate glass windows were blown out, and several trees were uprooted. A large roof on one of the buildings at the state honor farm was blown off.

The damage at the Prosperi airport was estimated at about $20,000.00.

Tinley Park is having another improvement come to the village by the erection of a large office building. This will be the new home of the Cook county Farm Bureau which building is being erected on 174th street just east of the Tinley Park Locker plant. The building will be 40x80 feet, one story of face brick and is well ahead in construction.

The Cook County Farm Bureau which has been located in Blue Island for many years, has sold its building there to a news agency and decided on the move to Tinley Park because of it being centrally located in the area which they serve in South Cook county. There is another office of this organization located at Arlington Heights which serves the northern Cook county area.

At the regular meeting of the Farm Bureau held Monday in Blue Island the annual election of officers took place. Charles Erickson of Mokena was elected president; Henry Eicholz, Maine township, vice president, and A. G. Holstein, Norwood Park, secretary-treasurer. Carl Mees of Arlington Heights is farm adviser with W. Schmidt assistant. The Cook County Farm Bureau has a membership of 5200.

Mr. Erickson, whose address is Mokena, lives on his farm just north of that village in Cook county. Mr. Mees came from Randolph county to Cook county about a year ago.

"Just Been Thinkin' "

Winter is the season of philosophy. He who cannot don his overcoat without the thought that this new task is only temporary will suffer doubly in the added effort. He who sees his fairest tree torn down by the savage gale and dares not plant another to try to equal its beauty will know long years of despair. We each must be the master of any situation which the cold chooses for our test. As the drifts grow high and the icicles frame the landscape of our living, let us stand strong in the grip of the

SILVER FANGS

The jaws of winter, white and cold, Are always easy to behold; They close on every home, and boast A death grip on each arch and post.

The friendly elm and oak at night Are stiff within their brittle bite In silver fangs, out in the yard, The faithful pump is freezing hard.

The teeth of winter stretch and strain In hoary rage outside the pane; As stubborn strength and cold collide, Man warmly watches from inside.

For he knows what survives is best And silver fangs can have the rest.

Too much oil in the engine of a car may be as harmful as too little, says the Chicago Motor Club. Adding oil when it is not needed may cause foaming which interferes with proper engine lubrication.

A BACKWARD LOOK—1930 to 1950—During the past two decades the White House has been constantly crying "wolf, wolf", keeping the country and the Congress in a dither. One emergency has followed another, all requiring "must" legislation to cure each emergency.

The bank holiday by Roosevelt started us off. It was necessary because President-elect Roosevelt refused to cooperate with President Hoover in taking steps to prevent it. The financial crisis then became an excuse to go off the gold standard and cheapen the dollar—something Roosevelt had promised Carter Glass he would NOT do. Then followed the "must" legislation prepared by the executive department and sent to Congress with orders to rubber stamp the same. "Must" legislation was followed by an era of wild government spending, "pump priming", "boondoggling", "made work", etc.—all of which failed to bring about the promised relief. Then came World War II with its war economy, its speed-up, its full employment, and its inflation scare. This was followed by government controls, O. P. A., rationing, allotments, and other restrictions.

What has been true in our domestic affairs has also been true in our foreign affairs—one emergency after another and one mistake after another. The following is a partial list of our mistakes in foreign affairs.

1. The $55 billion give-away lend-lease program. "Give us the tools and we will do the job."

2. Eleven billion dollars of lend-lease war material given to Russia with no strings attached, no promises for the future required.

3. The Cairo, Yalta, Teheran, and Potsdam Conference -- International poker games in which our leaders lost their shirts and ours also. The mistakes made at those four conferences are costing us today $60 billion per year, three-fourths of our Federal budget.

4. The China debacle. 350 million friendly people turned into Communist enemies. What a mess we made in China.

5. Russia's Atom Bomb. Roosevelt's encouragement of Stalin, his policy of permitting Communists to infiltrate our government departments, to have access to our scientific secrets, enabled Russia to master the secret of the atomic bomb much sooner than Russia could ever have hoped.

Whose fault? Who made these things possible? Who got us into our present mess, both in domestic affairs and in foreign affairs? Well, YOU answer these questions.

DO YOU WANT MORE OF

THE SAME. The question at issue in next year's campaign will be, "Do you want more of the same after 1952?" More of the same government extravagance, deficit spending, and ever-mounting national debt? More of the same padded payrolls that have boosted the number of civilian government workers to 2½ million, higher than the previous record-breaking peak of World War II? More of the same Federal tax increases that now fore-shadow a Federal sales tax as the only tax source left? More of the same reckless government spending that has fed the fires of inflation, cut the dollar in half, and boosted living costs for everyone? More of the same smelly Administration scandals in the R. F. C., the Bureau of Internal Revenue, and the Post Office, with their accompanying mink coats, deep freezes, free hotel accommodations? More of the same socialistic schemes which place the heavy hand of government upon business, agriculture, medicine, and education? More of the same blanket news-censorship by the executive department? More of the same administration resistance against the exposure of Communists and Communist policies that have infiltrated our government? More of the same giveaway programs to foreign countries, programs that have already depleted our American resources, American wealth, and American manpower?

YOU, the American voter, will have the opportunity next year to decide whether you want more of the same. The decision is in your hands.

CHEVROLET

More people buy Chevrolets than any other car!

WE'll put it up to you! There must be plenty of good reasons why more people buy Chevrolets than any other car.

Here are some things to think about.

There's the way Chevrolet looks. Nice clean, curved lines—like cars in the high-price field! Chevrolet's Body by Fisher sets the pace among low-priced cars.

There's the way Chevrolet rides and handles. The smoothness and big-car comfort of Uni-tized Knee-Action. Bigger brakes—biggest in the field—for safer, surer stops. Finest no-shift and standard driving at lowest cost with Power-glide or Synchro-Mesh transmission.

There's the way Chevrolet saves. Chevrolet is the lowest-priced line in the field and the savings go on and on with low operating costs.

There are plenty more reasons why Chevrolet is America's favorite. Come in and let us show them to you.

MOKENA CIVIC ASS'N SPONSORS HOME DECORATION CONTEST

Santa Claus Heads North From Mokena

The following appealing letter was found tied to one of the 139 trees shipped to George Wannemacher's Midwest store, at Mokena. Wilbur Teske, who assists in operating the store, showed the letter to several customers and many contributed toward making a gift to the writer, Margaret. Mr. Teske purchased a Bonnie Mae doll at the Dunham hardware store and Mr. Dunham contributed some extra gifts.

The beautiful doll, 26 inches in height, with a dress of orchid trimmed with lace, was sent with the other gifts and a letter asking Margaret to write if she received the package, to send a picture of herself and tell about the size of her family.

Thus for one little girl Santa lives south instead of north.

One of the best Craft workshops available will be given in Joliet March 31, April 1 and 2, by Binney and Smith of New York City. These workshops are given all over the United States and this one in Joliet is being sponsored by the Girl Scout Council of Will County, Inc.

Miss Bernice Magnie will be instructor of this workshop and it will be given at the Y from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The class is limited to 50 people and registrations will be

A contest will be held by the Mokena Civic association and awards will be made for the most effective out-door Christmas home lighting and decorations. Judging will be Friday evening, December 21, on the basis of originality, beauty and adherence to the Christmas theme.

Three judges from Joliet have been chosen and certificates and prizes will be awarded, first, $15.00; second, $10.00 and third, $5.00. It is suggested by the committee in charge, that the architectural lines of the homes be followed or that they serve as a pattern for the holiday arrangements; that focal points of interest such as lighted trees or luminous candles be made a part of the decorating plan.

The contest should be of interest to many because it is the first to be held in Mokena for several years. The area to be judged will include Woodland Acres and Sunny Acres subdivisions.

opened to the Girl Scout Council members between January 3rd and February 29th. If the quota of 50 has not been filled by Girl Scout workers by February 29th, registrations will be opened to the general public. Registrations are to be sent to the Girl Scout office, Joliet.

Every one registering is required to attend all of the classes all three days. No observers will be allowed.

This is a "Learn To Do By Doing" workshop and every one must work. All materials are furnished by Binney and Smith. Instructions and work will be given in the following crafts:

Crayolas, Chalk, Frescol, Finger Painting, Powder Paint, Tempera, Water Colors, Flexola, Block Printing, Amazart, Papier Mache and Clayola.

Scout workers feel fortunate in securing this workshop for this community. Teachers and outside workers are already trying to get registrations to this workshop. Girl Scout workers will have the opportunity to register before any outside registrations are taken. The first 50 registrations received in the Girl Scout office will be the ones accepted.

Any Girl Scout workers interested in this workshop, should have their registrations in the Girl Scout office on January 3d, or as soon as possible after this date to insure registration.

Sanitary Dist. Budget $152,136 Less Than This Year in Cook Co

The proposed 1952 corporate budget of the Cook County Sanitary District is $152,136 less than the 1951 budget despite increased costs of labor and materials and a sizeable expansion in the District's operations, has been disclosed by Anthony A. Olis, president of the board of trustees.

This reduction in the corporate fund, plus savings of $274,633 in the bond and interest fund, will reduce the total tax levy of the Sanitary district in 1952 to $29,001,347.22 from the $29,428,116.67 this year, a reduction in the tax rate of 0.732 cents.

As set up at present the District's corporate budget totals $15,138,892 compared with $15,291,028 this year. Olis emphasized that the last increase in the sanitary district's pegged levy was in 1948 and no increase was asked of the legislature in 1950.

The tentative budget was given to the board of trustees. Republican members of the Board, in addition to Olis, are vice-president Michael J. Rudnik, J. B. Martin, William F. Patterson, John G. Henneberger and William S. Nordberg, and the Democratic members are Casimir Griglik, Frank W. Chesrow, and John A. Cullerton. The public hearing on the budget was held in the Board rooms December 11.

"To those members of the Board who are Republicans this savings to the taxpayers is especially gratifying since all of us campaigned on the traditional Republican platform of governmental economy," Olis said. "This saving was achieved in the face of increased costs of virtually all materials bought by the Sanitary district, an increase of nearly $300,000 in the wages of district employees, and the highest degree of treatment given in the District's history."

While the amount of sewage treated by the district jumped from 1,124 million gallons per day in 1950 to 1,135.7 m.g.d. in 1951 and is expected to rise to 1,136 m.g.d. next year, the Sanitary District's plants, the finest in the world, increased their efficiency. The per cent of suspended solids removed increased from 85.8 in 1950 to 91.5 in 1951 and is expected to reach 92%, the maximum possible, next year.

Production of fertilizer at the modern plants jumped from 57,045 in 1950 to 73,009 tons this year and is expected to reach 100,000 tons next year, while the price per ton has gone up to $17.50 from about $13.50.

While District employees were given wage increases of about $300,000 this year, 72 positions were abolished as the result of a management study by Griffenhagen & Associates. Olis indicated efficiency studies will continue and the Board hopes to achieve further reductions in operating costs during the year.

"We will probably be faced with demands for wage increases next year," Olis said. "These can only be granted by reducing the number of employees or by offsetting the increased wages against any added revenues the District may gain."

A contributing factor to the savings effected by the board was the modernization of the purchasing department during the year and the hiring of a trained Purchasing Agent, Harry E. Eaton.

Members of the board also expect increased efficiency from the district's employees after January 1, when the revised Sanitary District Civil Service act goes into effect. This is designed to remove the civil service employees from political control and it forbids any Civil Service employee to actively engage in politics.

In analysing the proposed budget, Trustees Rudnik and Martin pointed out that the proposed expenditures include a $75,000 item to pay the District's share of election costs, an amount that was not carried last year.

The principal budget reductions were made by the board of trustees in their account, $21,450, the department of engineering, $197,865, and the maintenance and operation division, $215,642.

Community Fund and The Girl Scouts

Community Fund contributions maintain the year-round Girl Scout organization. The reason for the Girl Scout area council is best described by an outline of its activities which may be broken into six parts:

1, organization of new troops; 2, training leaders; 3, planning activities, 4, Public Relations, 5, Camping, both Day Camp and extended Camping and 6, General Administration.

With new troops being constantly organized, volunteer workers must be trained to provide adequate leadership. Experienced leaders must continue with more advanced training in order to be capable of continued progression in the advanced scouting skills.

Activities, such as Dad-Daughter cook outs, Scouts Own, Mother-Daughter teas, are planned within the troops, neighborhood or town-wide and assistance is given by the area staff in correlating the programs and rendering financial aid.

A program of community service makes the girls aware of their responsibility to their community and country. The public is kept informed of the activities and exhibits portraying the Scouting ideals are displayed in various store windows in the business district. Girls are being trained in first aid to prepare them to be ready to serve should the need arise. Service projects which add to the comfort and convenience of patients in local and veterans hospitals are integrated as an important part of the Scouting program.

The ultimate goal of every Scout is to be able to participate in camping, where girls are taught campcraft skills, responsibility and knowledge necessary for individual physical well being. Troop Camp is available at Camp Thorn creek near Thornton. Every Girl Scout who has developed the skills necessary to safely and satisfactorily participate in troop camping is eligible to enjoy the advantage of this camp. Specialized training is required of leaders who accompany the girls and guide them in a well rounded camping experience. Day Camps are operated during the summer months in two nearby Forest Preserves. Each camp is carefully supervised by trained adults, volunteers and site director. Each camper pays a minimum fee which only covers her transportation and noon meal. Area budget covers food and transportation for staff, site director's salary, program, medical and general supplies. Camp Manistee the established camp, is some 25 miles northeast of Muskegon, Mich. The campers live in tents and participate in all types of camping activities, including swimming, boating and canoeing. They are provided bus transportation to and from camp; plenty of wholesome and nourishing food; adequate supervision and direction; health service, etc., by a well qualified and trained staff. Camp life is kept simple and the resultant savings are passed in lower fees. No Girl Scout camp is operated for profit. Contributions have helped to build the camp and community funds help maintain it.

The Girl Scout activities are possible only through the continuing efforts of a large number of people: troop leaders, local committees, professional staff, area committees, board of directors, and all adult members. By the working together of all these people much good is accomplished. Therefore, the leaders are confident that the citizens of Tinley Park will want to support this program by contributing generously to the community fund that the local girls may learn to serve others, be resourceful, and to live democracy.

TIPS FOR NYLON CARE
You can use hot water for washing nylon, but not a high temperature for ironing it.

This cue for nylon care was given today by Miss Florence King, textiles and clothing specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. Hot water used in home laundering is usually about 130 degrees to 150 degrees F., whereas low iron temperatures are about 250 to 275 degrees F. When you iron nylon, turn the temperature gauge to "nylon" or "rayon"; high temperatures do melt it.

SET YOUR SON UP IN FARMING...

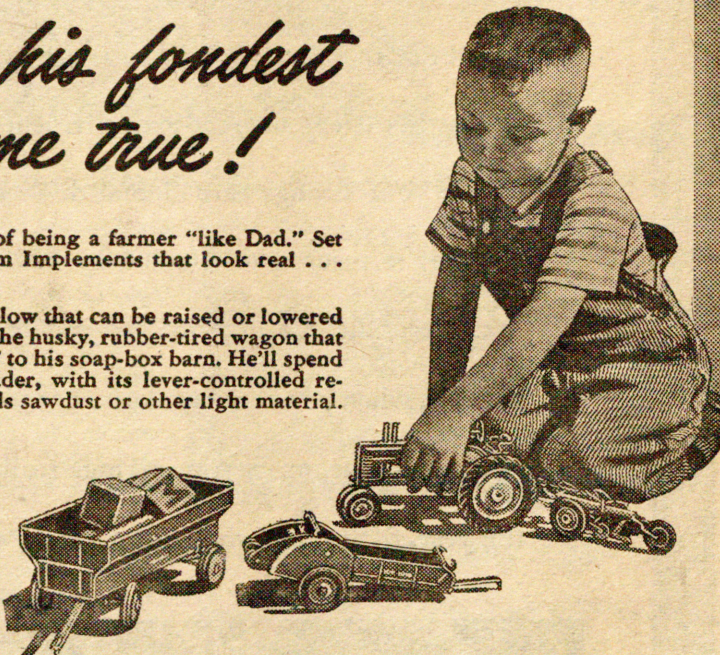

and make his fondest dreams come true!

Give your youngster the thrill of being a farmer "like Dad." Set him up with toy John Deere Farm Implements that look real... actually work.

He'll get a big thrill out of the plow that can be raised or lowered for transporting or plowing, and the husky, rubber-tired wagon that will haul big loads of "play-grain" to his soap-box barn. He'll spend hours with the toy manure spreader, with its lever-controlled revolving beater that actually spreads sawdust or other light material.

Of course, the sturdy toy John Deere Tractor, with a steering wheel he can turn, will be one of his most prized possessions all through childhood.

Plan now to see all these realistic, built-to-scale toys at our store soon. (If all your boys are girls, they'll like them just as well!)

Door Stop for Garage or Barn

AN easy way of controlling an open garage or barn door is illustrated. Bend one side of a strap hinge, attaching the bent half to the door with screws so that the straight end touches the ground at 45 degrees.

Fasten a short piece of coil spring to the door and loose end of the hinge. The spring will hold the door stop in place on the ground. It also will cause it to snap back after the hinge has been flipped up to move the door.
This is strictly a "toe action" device which is cheap and always works.

Living in Victory

Lesson for December 16, 1951

THE story of the conquest of Canaan is of course a story of historical events. By itself, however, it is not so "edifying" as it once was. Joshua repeatedly committed, or attempted to commit, what is now known as "genocide," or the total deliberate slaughter of an entire nation.

So it is better, all around, to take the story of the conquest of Canaan not in its bare historical form but to follow the example of earlier generations of Christians and take it as a kind of parable, a parable of the victorious life.

Victory Has Many Wounds

BY the victorious life is meant the life that rises above its temptations, living for God against all opposition, the strong life, not overthrown by selfishness and sin but overcoming evil with good.

First of all, as a famous war correspondent said, "Victory has many wounds." Joshua and his armies won; but they had casualties. No victory is ever won without a fight; or to put it another way, no victory without a fight is worth much. Yet we forget this in our personal struggles against sin. We are tempted to think, I could be a better person if I did not have so many temptations. I could be a better person in more sympathetic surroundings. I could be a better Christian if I had had better upbringing. If . . . If . . .

Maybe you are right, more likely you are wrong. Is an oak a better tree if it is raised in a hot-house? Is a race-horse faster if he never has a hard race? We pray for strength and God sends us difficulties. That is God's way of answering our prayer.

Life-Long Campaign

IN another way Joshua's wars are a type of the war of our best against our worst. He never did quite conquer Palestine. In Judges I the repeated phrase strikes the eye, "did not drive out . . ." In the very center of Palestine, for example, what we now know as the city of Jerusalem remained a hostile strong-point for centuries after Joshua.

The whole story of the Israelites after Joshua shows how imperfect the conquest was at first, and archaeology has underscored the record of the Bible. Yet it is true to say that there was a real conquest of Canaan. The country was won, though there was a vast deal of mopping-up to be done. This is again a parable. The victorious life is not the same as the sinless life.

The majority of Christians believe there was one sinless life, but only one. We have a right to call a man good (as the Bible does) without meaning that he is perfect. Some people are needlessly discouraged at this point. If we expect the victorious life to be so completely victorious that not a single tinge of evil remains in it anywhere, we shall not only be expecting ourselves to be better than the saints, but we shall be living in disillusionment.

D-Day and V-Day

THERE is another, brighter side to this. It is true, no present conquest of evil is complete; but final and complete victory is assured. For the "Captain of our salvation" is Christ, and we Christians believe he has actually conquered evil, once and for all.

As Dr. Cullman puts it, D-Day and V-Day are not the same. The battle of the beach-heads came long before the surrender. Christ has put the powers of darkness to flight. The Cross and the Resurrection are the Christian's D-Day. There will be much fighting, many casualties, perhaps many backsets, before V-Day, but it will come.

The only assurance Joshua had that his cause would finally win was his confidence in God. So the real guarantee, and the only guarantee, which a Christian has of ultimate and total victory is that he fights in the name and in the strength of Jesus. As Martin Luther's hymn has it,

"Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing."

"Christus Victor," Christ the Conqueror, is an ancient name for our Lord. But his victories are not old finished stories; they still go on—in us.

The 1951 Revenue Bill—(Taken from "Congressional Record")

Mr. Mason: Mr. Speaker, when this tax bill was before the House the first time, I called it an economic monstrosity. I said then I did not see how any Member of Congress could vote for it. I have asked for this time to tell you again why you should not vote for this tax bill.

First: Twelve years ago Uncle Sam was collecting a maximum of $5,000,000,000 in Federal taxes; today he is collecting about $60,000,000,000—twelve times as much. That means that our Federal taxes have increased 1,200 percent in the last twelve years—an average increase of 100 percent each year for twelve years. Should we increase Federal taxes still more?

Second: Congress passed two tax bills last year, upping Federal taxes something over $10,000,000,000—the increase in taxes alone last year amounted to twice what our total Federal tax bill was in 1940. Should we again soak the already overburdened American taxpayer?

Third: Today the national debt of all European countries put together—leaving out only Russia—is $115,000,000,000. Our total national debt is $257,000,000,000—more than twice as much as all of Europe put together. And this does not take into account the $50,000,000,000 of outstanding obligations that Uncle Sam owes over and above the $257 billion—obligations incurred by the Export-Import Bank, the RFC, the Commodity Credit Corporation, the International Bank, the International Fund, and several other Federal loaning agencies. This means that we actually owe three times as much as all the countries of Europe put together. Since the population of Europe is twice the population of the United States, we have a per capita debt upon every man, woman, and child in America that is six times as heavy as the per capita debt upon every individual European. Yet, Mr. Speaker, in the face of these facts our Foreign Affairs Committee tells us we must arm the Europeans this year to the tune of $7.5 billion, and we must arm the Europeans to the tune of $4 billion because they cannot afford to arm themselves.

Fourth: We subsidize the Socialist-Labor government of England at the expense of the American taxpayer. We ship coal and steel to England today and go without ourselves. Before the war England exported both steel and coal.

Today she imports both steel and coal. That is what her Socialist-Labor government has done for her economy—and we are to keep on supporting her.

Mr. Speaker, isn't it time to stop giving away our resources? Isn't it time to call a halt to this taxing spree?

An Announcement—Candidates for President, for Governor, and for other State offices have already made their announcements. Because these announcements were expected and taken for granted, no one was surprised. In view of these early announcements the writer wishes to announce at this time that he will be a candidate for re-election to Congress. Since a platform statement of policy should always accompany an announcement, the following program is submitted for public consideration:

1. Bring about a drastic reduction in Federal expenditures.
2. Stop pouring American money down foreign rat holes.
3. Reduce—not increase—Federal taxes, and equalize the Federal tax load wherever possible.
4. Remove government controls over business, and promote more business efficiency in government bureaus.
5. Establish honesty and integrity in government—from the office of the President on down.

Here's Utility Room Workbench

EVEN though the utility room in a basement home serves many purposes, it has space enough for a sturdy workbench if it is compact and legless like the one shown. It's easy to keep the floor underneath clean.

Two-by-four's notched out to fit a two-by-four bolted to the wall will serve as the slanting legs. Two planks, each 10 inches wide, are laid over three more two-by-four's, as illustrated, to form the base for the top. For a tough working surface, nail over the planks a piece of Masonite quarter-inch tempered hardboard, the material widely used for bench tops in factories because it "has what it takes."

By nailing a couple of 1 by 2-inch pieces of lumber across the slanting legs, you create a handy place for short pieces of lumber and hardboard.

The drawer may be made or purchased. For a smooth, hard bottom that won't splinter, use a piece of Masonite hardboard.

months were tentatively planned at a recent meeting of the Exmittee, invited to work with the bad night.

have been sent to the College of

a cow for Christmas!

(Dairymen, too!)

This Christmas
remember the girls who give all year long!

Our men in the field report that your lady friends would love an airy boudoir... so give them a barn ventilating system. Every woman likes the soft caress of a breeze rippling her hair, and because she's proud of her home, she'll like the fresher, drier apartment that barn ventilating will give her.

Give her an electrically heated automatic waterer... and she'll make cow eyes at you! A girl can do her best when she has lots of fresh water right there when she wants it. And she hates to see you working so hard... letting her in and out to drink and hacking through the ice on the watering trough.

Here's a suggestion she gave us herself... she hopes you'll "warm up" to the idea of a milk house heater. She doesn't want to tell you, but it seems you have a new nickname out in the barn... Old Icyfingers! Having a comfortable milk house to work in should cure this trouble... and the girls will reward you with nice warm smiles.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sign of a Nice Guy

Got so around these parts that everywhere a hunter went this fall, he came up against signs saying "PRIVATE PROPERTY, NO HUNTING. KEEP OFF." But not out at Happy Preston's place!

Happy's signs say "PRIVATE PROPERTY, GOOD HUNTING, BUT BE CAREFUL."

"Don't hunt myself," Happy says, "but there's plenty of game on my property. I tell the hunters where the best spots are—away from where I'm working and where nobody else is hunting. It works out pretty well all-around."

From where I sit, Happy has once again shown why he gets along with everyone and why everyone respects him. Happy's likes and dislikes might not be the same as his neighbors', but that doesn't stop him from understanding. When it comes to opinions on hunting, fishing, politics, ways of farming, or whether your favorite beverage is beer or cider, try to be like Happy and the chances are you'll be really happy!

Soap Flake Snow

Trimming the Christmas tree with fluffy snow is easy if you use soap flakes. It won't melt either.

Here's how it's done: Use three or four cups of soap flakes to one cup of warm water. Beat with electric beater or hand beater until smooth and fluffy. Then spread immediately over branches of tree, scattering it on with hands.

For sparkle, spread on some artificial glistening snow.
